In consideration of the above holding fee paid by the prospective tenant, the landlord's agent acknowledges that:

- (i) The application for tenancy has been approved by the landlord; and
- (ii) The premises will not be let during the above period, pending the making of a residential tenancy agreement; and
- (iii) If the prospective tenant(s) decide not to enter into such an agreement, the landlord may retain the whole fee; and
- (iv) If a residential tenancy agreement is entered into, the holding fee is to be paid towards rent for the residential premises concerned.
- (v) The whole of the fee will be refunded to the prospective tenant if:
  - (a) the entering into of the residential tenancy agreement is conditional on the landlord carrying out repairs or other work and the landlord does not carry out the repairs or other work during the specified period
  - (b) the landlord/landlord's agent have failed to disclose a material fact(s) or made misrepresentation(s) before entering into the residential tenancy agreement.

PRIVACY NOTICE - APPLICATION FOR TENANCY

The Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) regulates the collection, use, disclosure and maintenance of personal information by the Agent from the Applicant and from third parties relating to the Applicant.

The information collected enables the Agent to identify the tenant, to assess this application and for the proper management of the landlord and tenant relationship should the application for tenancy be successful. The personal information of the Applicant also includes personal information already held by the Agent on any data base. Failure to provide all or any of the personal information, renders the Agent unable to assess the application and or properly manage the landlord and tenant relationship.

The intended recipients of the information are any person to whom, body or agency to which it is usual to disclose the information to enable the agent to properly assess the application including the landlord, nominated referees, other agents, tenancy reference data bases, owner's corporations and community associations and as otherwise permitted by the Privacy Act 1988 and this will include information about the Applicant's performance of its obligations pursuant to and under any Residential Tenancy Agreement entered into (particularly any failure to observe any obligations) and information collected during the term of the tenancy.

The Applicant has the right of access to the information and may do so by contacting the Agent. The Applicant has the right to correction of the information if it is not accurate, up-to-date and complete.
